ADVANTAGE FITPRO is a top-notch brand-new facility, with brand-new commercial grade equipment. This business offers fitness training in classes, tandems and for individuals. Guidance is provided by an instructor with Bachelor’s in Physical Education/Athletic Training/Exercise Science and more than 25 years of experience, multiple certifications and continuing education. You may have seen James in The Times Union this past Fall after they completed their very competitive open survey. With the use of the internet and social media, many trainers received nominations! There was tremendous reader participation with tracking for unique voters. As the people’s choice he received the more nominations than any other candidate for “The Capital District’s Top Trainer”! James owns and operates ADVANTAGE FITPRO is located within Tri-City Fitness: A fully staffed, privately owned and operated sports facility established in 1969 and evolving almost 50 years since!
